PYEMIA

Is the most virulent form of blood-poisoning.

Less speedily fatal, but not less certainly so, is the vitiation of the blood of which the first symptoms are Pimples,

Sties, Boils, and Cutaneous Eruptions.

When the taint of Pyemia gives warning of its presence by such indications,

no time should be lost in using AYER'S

SARSAPARILLA, the only perfect and reliable medicine for the purification of the blood.

SCROFULA

Is a foul corruption in the blood that rots out all the machinery of life. Nothing will eradicate it from the system and prevent its transmission to offspring but

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA. This preparation is also the only one that will cleanse the blood of Mercurial poison, and the taint of Contagious Diseases. Impurified blood is productive of

ANEMIA.

A wretched condition indicated by Pale

Skin, Flaccid Muscles, Shattered

Nerves, and Melancholy. Its first symptoms are Weakness, Languor,

Loss of Nerve Force, and Mental Depression. Its course, unchecked, leads inevitably to insanity or death. Women frequently suffer from it. The only medicine that will purify the blood, enriches it with new vitality, and invigorizes the whole system, is Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 23, 1885.

The latest story in regard to the St. Louis hotel murder case is that Preller, the supposed victim, has been seen alive since his alleged murder by Maxwell. Benj. G. Rogers of Philadelphia is the party who claims to have seen and recognized him. After telling how he became acquainted with Arthur C. Preller some time before the murder, he says that one day in May last—the 14th or 15th—he was in a Philadelphia pool-room when a gentleman wearing a light spring suit and a tall white hat with a wide band of black, brushed past him. He caught a glimpse of his face. It was plainly shaven and Mr. Preller wore a stubby mustache, but Rogers remembered the features, and following him up, laid his hand on his arm, "How do you do, Mr. Preller?" he said. Preller turned quickly, his face flushed, and he raised his hand as though to grasp Rogers' but suddenly dropped it and bowed stiffly. "You are mistaken, sir," he said, "that is not my name." "That is what you called yourself when I met you at the Continental Hotel last March," said Rogers, "but I see by the papers that you had been murdered in St. Louis." "I never met you in my life before," Preller said, "I was never in St. Louis, I am from New Orleans." Before Rogers could say anything further Preller walked quickly away and was lost in the crowd. Whether there is any truth in the story remains to be seen.

The leading article for the September "Overland" will be by Prof. Josiah R. Joyce of Harvard, late of California, upon "The Sacramento Squatter Riot of 1850." Flora Haines Apponyi will furnish a personal sketch of the late Helen Hunt Jackson, and Ina D. Coolbrith will contribute a poem. These, with editorial comments upon Mrs. Jackson's literary work, will give this number great value as a memorial of the author of "Ramona." There will be an article from Hon. S. S. Cox, Minister to Turkey, on "The Thirty-Fifth and Thirty-Sixth Congresses." Dr. Henry DeGroot will furnish a graphic account of the ancient "Mining Camp of You Bet." Capt. Wright, of the Confederate Army and late lecturer of the California State Grange, will describe "How the Blockade was Run." The most important stories will be: "A Plea before Judge Lynch," by a well-known pioneer, and "The Doctor of Leidesdorff Street," a brilliant and exciting story of San Francisco. These are only a few of the attractive and valuable articles to appear in September.

The manager of a panorama in San Francisco has the gall to ask this office to publish a reading notice of the value of $3 or $4 for a complimentary (?) ticket to the same. The proposition is declined with thanks. We are not running a paper for love. When we want to see his work of art we will pay our way in like any other individual. Our advertising columns are a part of our stock in trade and we don't purpose to dispose of three dollars worth for a four-bit show ticket.

"The San Jacinto Register," is the title of a new paper issued last Saturday in the above town. It is neatly printed and starts out with a good local advertising patronage. Its editor, Mr. Ed. L. Buck, deserves great credit for his enterprise in giving that town a first-class local paper and every business man and woman in San Jacinto should extend to the "Register" the support it so justly merits at their hands. We wish the new candidate for public favor success.

In France symptoms of poisoning have followed the eating of vegetables grown on soil which had been treated with chemical poisons to destroy the phylloxera insect of the grape vines.

One of the largest wineries in Napa county has commenced crushing grapes, the price paid for the same being from $10 to $18 per ton, according to quality.

The German flag recently hoisted on a French island off the Victorian coast, in the South Pacific, has been removed by order of Prince Bismarck at the request of France.

THE WHEELER PROCESS OF CANNING FRUIT.

The price of fruit is so ruinously low this season, that after paying the expenses of picking, boxing and shipping there is nothing left for the producer. In consequence fruit of all descriptions is allowed to lie on the ground, where it has fallen from the trees, and rot. Particularly is this the case in Sonoma Valley. In view of this condition of things, it behooves our apprehensive to be up and doing and strive to make some provision for disposing of their fruit. If it be too late to accomplish anything the present season, they can at least be prepared for working off next year's crop. To our mind, the most simple means of doing this is by what is known as the "Wheeler process of canning." The orchardists of Vacaville and Suisun have adopted this plan and have met with great success.

In order to give our readers an insight into this process of canning and the advantages claimed for it, we reproduce the following statements made by Leonard Coates of Napa, at a recent Fruit-Growers' meeting in that city, and published in the "Register" of last week. Mr. Coates said:

"The orchardists of Vacaville are shipping their largest fruit East, and canning the rest by the Wheeler process right on the ground, the cost being $1.17 per dozen cans. This fruit can be readily disposed of at $2.50 per dozen cans. The Wheeler Packing Co. have arranged with large houses in New York and London to handle these goods, and thus have a market for all that come into their hands. The Wheeler cannery consists of a galvanized iron box, and the size most used stands about three feet high, is two feet across and four feet long. It sits on a furnace, and in it there are two trays, each tray accommodating six cans or glass jars at one time. The fruit is cooked by steam, and a syrup—five pounds of sugar to one gallon of water—poured over it. With one of these canneries and fourteen hands, eighty dozen cans are put up in one day. The cost of this size of cannery is $23, and should be used under a temporary shelter in the orchard. In operating them they are replacing the Chinamen with white men. The fruit gathered and put up should be of even ripeness, the greener fruit being left on the tree to ripen, and that found too soft can be made into jams and jellies over the same furnace. The fruit put up by this process is firmer, of nicer flavor, and far superior to that usually found in stores. It must find a market because of its excellent quality. The advantage of a Wheeler cannery over that of a town cannery is found in this, that every orchardist can do his own work, give employment to members of his own family and those of his neighbors, and in the end have a superior brand of goods for the market. It solves the cannery question, and the labor problem that goes with it. It is a boon to the State. It is found that Eastern buyers prefer to take dried fruit in sacks and do whatever boxing is found necessary on the other side of the continent. They tell growers here that they are not buying lumber for shipment East, and the probability is that in future this class of goods will be more generally sacked than boxed."

We like to see a man refuse to take a home paper and all the time sponge on his neighbor for the reading of it. We like to hear a man complain when asked to subscribe for his home paper, that he takes more papers than he reads now, and then goes around and borrows or loans around until he gets all the news from it. We like to see a man run down his home paper as not worth taking, and every now and then beg the editor for a favor in the editorial line. We like to see a merchant neglect to advertise in his home paper, and then try to get a share of the trade the newspaper brings into town. We like to see this; it looks economical, thrifty, progressive and—cheeky.—Gardiner "Reporter."

The Napa "Register" reached the ripe newspaper age of twenty-three years on the 19th inst. It is a good paper, Republican in politics and is deserving of the united support of its party in Napa county.

"NEUTRAL" SPEAKS HIS MIND.

Ed. INDEX-TRIBUNE.—Sir: Reading the communication in your issue of last week, in relation to our Postoffice, it is amusing to notice by way of prologue, that our "Citizen" correspondent is a "staunch Republican withal," which fact ought to be sufficient inducement to furnish space in your columns for his article. He has certainly enlightened a few of your subscribers as to the number of our population. Some of us old residents had no idea that our whole township could muster 500 "educated, intelligent, and well-to-do people," but must say we are proud to hear that there are 1,000 individuals collecting mail matter from our Postoffice and would be delighted to know that it was even so. The gentlemanly, "Citizen," is a little too expansive in his count, and may have made an error in taking the census of our postal district. One other trifling mistake he must have made by expressing the opinion of ninety-nine one-hundredths of the 1000 inhabitants of this valley. He is also a little "contracted" in his views. He measures space with a narrow eye by stating that the room allowed the public in our Postoffice is only 6x10 which would be 60 square feet, whereas it is 18x15, or more than three times the size given by our worthy "Citizen." Our friend goes on to expatiate on the manner in which all the "educated, intelligent and well-to-do" people disport themselves about 8 o'clock every night. They allow themselves to be forced upon the sidewalk and into the street "in summer's heat and winter's storms," or if it was a fact, from the torrid to the frigid zone in one night. Our "Citizen" friend does a grievous injustice to the education and intelligence of our people by even intimating that they should so far forget themselves as to use brute force, merely to gain a few minutes time, and whomsoever is guilty of roughly hustling old people and delicate ladies together must, indeed, have very little respect for their education, their intelligence, or themselves.

It has become a serious matter of thought with your correspondent how to obviate some of the accumulative annoyances that exist in and around our Postoffice, and I have little doubt if my suggestion is followed it may appease his wrath and facilitate with more dispatch the delivery of the mail matter to the "business man" and "staunch Republican withal" than probably anything else. It is this: Let the delicate ladies and the very old people wait for half an hour, till the fellow with more muscle than brains gets served first. Although at times, and that too often, I have seen some of these same delicate ladies, with all their frailties, assert their rights, and by their intelligent effrontery walk boldly past a dozen of your "brutal, muscular, hustling scoundrels" who become appalled and stand back to give place for the delicate creatures to receive their mail first. These same men and boys, many of them blowing clouds of smoke from pipes, cigars and cigarettes suggest to a person very forcibly that they must have left their education at home or have become careless about how to use it.

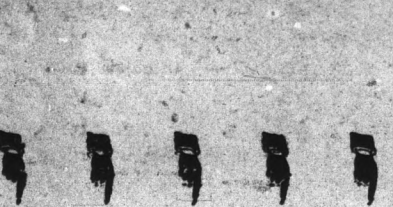

Your "Citizen" is evidently well pleased with the present incumbent when he says, "she is the very best person for the position; she is a lady that every man, woman and child in this community respects in her individual capacity, is universally popular, genial and constant in attendance to her business." There's where he becomes rapturous. But methinks it poor remuneration to first kick a person severely on the shins and then try to palliate the offense by offering an apology for the act.

Your "Citizen" commencing his article grows himself a "staunch Republican," and concluding the same, he goes on to state that politics has nothing to do with his grievance. It really ought not. However a man to befriend should act like a friend.

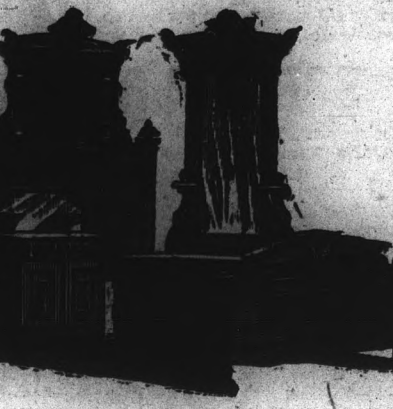

Excited Thousands All over the land are going into ecstasy over Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Their unlooked for recovery by the timely use of this great life saving remedy, causes them to go nearly wild in its praise. The dilapidated "Antelope" is now making the trips between San Francisco and Sonoma Landing in place of the "James M. Donahue." In consequence the train arrives almost every evening from thirty to fifty minutes behind time.

R. B. Lyon, of this place, was awarded the silver medal at the Santa Rosa Fair for the best orchard and vineyard gang-plow. It was worthily bestowed, as the plow is, without doubt, a great invention and will fill a long felt want.

The reason the Sonoma school did not compete for the prizes offered by the Sonoma County Agricultural Park Association, at its recent meeting was because the teachers received no notice of prizes being offered until three days before the opening of the Fair.

Mrs. George Golden begs leave to inform the ladies of Sonoma and vicinity that she is now prepared to make dresses in the very latest styles at reasonable rates. Also, plain and fancy sewing done with neatness and dispatch. Ladies wishing work done in Mrs. Golden's line are invited to give her a call.

Arsenic and quinine are not desirable commodities to carry about in one's system, and it is to be hoped that the poisonous ague remedies have had their day. Ayer's Ague Cure is a sure antidote for the Ague, and all malarial fevers and is perfectly harmless, leaving the system in as good condition as before the disease was contracted.

Last Monday evening the Clay Literary Society decided to immediately invest $50 in new books. Members of the library who have any particular work which they would like to have purchased will favor the committee by describing the same to either of the following gentlemen: Dr. McTaggart, S. H. Shaw or Fred. Duhring.

The benefit ball given to the Sonoma Brass Band, at Union Hall, on Friday of last week was a very pleasant affair, and was attended by about thirty couple. On account of the short notice given—six days—the attendance was small to what it could have been had it been a month or so sooner. As it was, a small sum was realized and all present enjoyed themselves.

Sudden Death.

Yesterday morning at half-past six o'clock Antonio Brichetto was found dead by his wife in a water-closet in the rear of his house on Spain street. It appears that deceased had not been feeling well for several days, but was able to attend to his work and no serious results were anticipated on that account. On the morning in question he arose as usual and while his wife was preparing breakfast repaired to the closet before mentioned and not returning for some time, his wife called to him several times and receiving no answer became alarmed, and hastily going to the closet she opened the door and discovered that her husband had fallen backward and was apparently dead. Assistance was summoned, he was carried into the house and efforts made to resuscitate him but without avail. Deceased was a native of Italy, 41 years of age and leaves a wife and two children and a large circle of friends to mourn his sudden taking off. Coroner King was telegraphed for and as we go to press an inquest is being held over the remains.

Pioneer Grove.

This place, since coming into the hands of Mr. and Mrs. A. Brown, a little over a year ago, has been wonderfully improved for so short a time. On the place a $3,000 residence has been built, an artesian well bored and over 1100 choice fruit trees planted; besides many other improvements of a lesser nature have been made. Their residence has been handsomely furnished and it is one of the prettiest in the valley, both inside and out. Pioneer Grove, before passing into the hands of Mr. and Mrs. B., had been allowed to go almost to ruin by its former owner, but improvements are now to be seen on every side. It is to such people as these that we look to to help build up our valley and make it a perfect paradise. In a few years more, under the fostering care of its present owner, Pioneer Grove will be one of the most productive farms of its size in the valley, and will go to prove what energy and enterprize can accomplish.

Unknown Dead.

The remains of the man found in Russian River, at the foot of Fitch mountain last week, could not be identified. The corpse, says the Santa Rosa "Democrat," was entirely naked and much decomposed, no hair or whiskers remaining and nothing by which he could be identified. There was a deep pool above him enclosed by sand bars, so it is more than probable that he was drowned there, and floated to the sand bar below. In dragging the pool, a handkerchief burned full of holes alone was found. Judge King thinks that it was a tramp who was tired of life, and who committed suicide after burning all his clothes and other things so as to destroy all possible chance of identifying him. No one in that section has been missing for the length of time that these remains must have been in the water, which is three or four weeks at the very least.

Responded Liberally.

The wine-growers of the Sonoma Valley have responded liberally toward defraying the expenses of a special agent to take charge of the California wine and grape exhibit at the Louisville Exposition. Sonoma county was asked to contribute as her share $100 of the amount, which she has done. Of the above sum this valley contributed all but $15, as the following will show: Mrs. K. F. Warfield, $10; Christian Weise, $5; Lawrence Watson, $10; J. H. Drummond, $10; W. McP. Hill, $10; Messrs. Guthrie & Macartney, $10; F. Kerridge, $5; I. De Turk, $10; Eli Shipperd, $10; Capt. H. E. Boyes, $5. The balance was contributed by the Cloverdale Viti-cultural Association.

Another Postponement.

The of the People vs. H. Schwartz et al., charged with forcible entry, drags its slow length along. The case came up before Justice Brown's court in Santa Rosa last week and another postponement was had, this time till the 15th of next month. It will be recollected that defendant and others took forcible possession of a quiet, peaceable and bed-ridden man's premises in Glen Ellen some months ago, and were in turn thrown out by the indignant citizens of that place. If justice is done, Schwartz and his followers will be severely punished for their unlawful act.

Quarterly Meeting Services.

Quarterly meeting services commenced last night at the Methodist church. The pastor, Rev. E. H. King, preached an excellent sermon. On Sunday evening he will occupy the pulpit again, services commencing at 7.30 o'clock. The presiding elder, Rev. A. J. Nelson, will preach to-day, (Saturday), at 2 and 7.30 a. m., and to-morrow at 11 a. m. The communion will be observed at the conclusion of the sermon on Sunday morning. Quarterly conference will be held after sermon at 2 p. m. on Saturday. All are invited.

IMPROVEMENT NOTES.

Robert Hall is building a fine residence on his place two miles south of town.

F. Duhring is erecting a fine stable on the grounds attached to his private residence.

Improvements still continue to be made on Terrace Hill by the owner, Dr. Lawrence.

Pope's building on First street East, occupied by Badger's furniture store, is being newly shingled.

New flooring is being put down in the Sonoma Valley Bank building and other improvements made.

Henry Raschen, of the Union Hotel, is having a summer house built on the grounds attached to the same.

The large addition to the residence of Mrs. Geo. Watriss, on the Santa Rosa road, is progressing finely and promises to look quite imposing when finished.

Painters have finished work on McMackin's new building adjoining Jones' Hotel. When the sidewalk is laid in front of the same, it will be ready for occupancy.

Several car loads of lumber arrived this week consigned to Mrs. M. A. Carriger, to be used for fencing purposes on her fine ranch three miles west of town. A lane is to be built, on either side of which will be planted shade trees.

Work on Mrs. Robert Johnson's $50,000 residence, on the Buena Vista Ranch two miles from Sonoma, is progressing rapidly. It is estimated that the beautifying of the grounds surrounding the house will cost another $50,000. When finished, it will be one of the most magnificent places outside of San Francisco.

SANTA ROSA NOTES.

[Democrat.]

Henry Allen, one of the oldest residents of Santa Rosa, died last Monday from injuries received while at work on the Ursuline Academy, on the 17th inst.

A vag in Justice Brown's Court on Monday, demanded a jury trial. When the twelve citizens were called, he asked if those were the persons who were to try him. Being answered in the affirmative, he responded: "Then I plead guilty."

Miss Katie Burger, while returning from the Fair grounds, on Friday, would probably have met with a very serious accident had she not displayed great presence of mind. The horse, which was attached to a cart, became frightened after leaving the ground and ran with great speed, the young lady holding on with courage and keeping the animal in the road, although he made frantic attempts to run into the fence. The teams meeting her halted on the side, giving her the road. After reaching the main road the horse slacked up a little when Miss Burger jumped out, the horse continuing home, stopping when he reached the gate. The lady fell on her back but escaped with a few slight bruises.

Death of Clark Foss.

[Santa Rosa Democrat.]

James P. Clark received a dispatch from J. A. Chesboro, of Calistoga, announcing the death of Clark Foss, which occurred at his residence near Kellogg, on Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Foss was one of the most widely known men on the Pacific Coast. His reputation as a skillful driver was second only to that of Hank Monk of the old Overland stage line. For the past thirty years he has run stages to and from the Geyser's Springs. He was for a long time a resident of Healdsburg, and ran stages from there to Ray's Station, from whence passengers were taken over the Geyser peak trail to the springs. When the railroad was completed up Napa valley, he moved to Calistoga, built a toll road over the mountain by way of Pine Flat and thence down Sulphur creek to the springs, and put on a line of six-horse wagons. Until the completion of the Donahue road to Cloverdale all travel went by that route. Mr. Foss was a man of great nerve and you could not yoke up six of the most vicious of the mustang tribe that he would not tone down after a very short experience. He would whirl around the curves on his grand road at a gait that would stiffen the hair on the head of a timid tourist.

He is thus described by one who knew him at his best: "He stands six feet two inches in his stockings, is as strong as a giant, has the voice of a tragedian, weighs two hundred and thirty pounds and is as fine a specimen of muscular development as ever went out of the hills of the Granite State."

Rejoicings Down South.

LEXINGTON, Ky.—Mr. John T. Bruce, of the United States Revenue Collector's office, informed an editor of the "Daily Press," of this city, that for seven years he suffered terribly from rheumatism in his ankle, which most of the time was swollen to two or three times its natural size, and was so painful that he could not put his foot to the ground. After trying everything he could think of without obtaining relief, he at ten o'clock one morning applied St. Jacobs Oil, and shortly afterwards made two further applications. At three o'clock that afternoon the pain was gone, the swelling disappeared, and the cure was as permanent as it was quick.

GLEN ELLEN BREVITIES.

Mr. Peters, of the Mervyn Hotel, is displaying a new sign.

The weather for the past week has been cooler and more pleasant.

Miss Agnes Small has returned after a brief visit to San Francisco. Wm. A. Thompson has nearly completed an elegant dwelling on his farm.

A Chinese wash house commenced operation to-day. "Allee same washee clothes."

The railroad company are taking gravel out of the creek and are utilizing the same on their road bed.

Mr. Hill is building a large stone building on his place near the depot. It will be used for storing wine and fruit.

Ed. Reynolds causes the wood pile of the railroad company to rapidly diminish. He is doing it with his little axe and saw.

Geo. Zane was taken suddenly ill last week with chills and fever. He is now recovering rapidly under the care of Dr. Davis of Sonoma.

Uncle Small's melon depot was largely patronized during the late hot spell. Uncle has a good article and his prices are as low as the lowest.

Negotiations among the wine men are now going on. Rumors of purchases and sales of grapes are flying thick and fast.

GLEN ELLEN, Aug. 28th, 1885.

PERSONAL.

Carl Browne, formerly a resident of this town, paid us a flying visit last Wednesday.

Mr. M. H. Morgan, a prominent politician of San Francisco, has been in town several days this week.

Mrs. Henry Raschen came up from the city last Monday, where she had been visiting for two weeks.

Thomas Whyte with Joseph Bramer & Co., wholesale cigar dealers, San Francisco, was in town Saturday.

John Lewis and City Marshal Dyer returned from a three-week's camping trip in Lake county last Wednesday evening much improved in health. During their absence they visited a number of the noted mineral springs in that county, among them the Bartlett and Adams.

HEALDSBURG HAPPENINGS.

[Enterprise.]

Mr. Carman and W. B. Tucker & Co., hop men, are offering one cent per pound to white hop-pickers.

The Healdsburg boys scooped in the pacing race at Santa Rosa, Thursday, to the tune of $1,100; and other races that put the amount up to $3,000.

On Monday last, while R. K. Truitt and family were returning from their mountain ranch, their little son Charlie was thrown from the wagon and seriously injured, but is now convalescing.

The rate of taxation on the assessable property of the city will be 29 cts. on $100 for general purposes and 11 cts. on $100 for interest on bonds.

One day this week as three Italians were crossing Russian River on a raft, at Moscow, one mile from Duncan's Mills, and when about the middle of the stream, one of them, whose name we are unable to learn, suddenly threw up his arms and fell backward off the raft, never coming to the surface from his first disappearance. The river was dragged at the point and his body recovered in twenty-four feet of water.

Last Friday quite an excitement was caused by the arrest of a woman by Marshal Clark, on a charge of beastly intoxication. She was tried by a jury of six on Saturday, found guilty, and on Monday was sentenced by Recorder Emerson to pay a fine of thirty dollars. The woman at first insisted upon taking an appeal, but realizing the unenviable notoriety it would give her, finally paid her fine. This being the case, and the matter having been settled in court, we refrain from giving her name.

When Baby was sick, we gave her
When she was a Child, she cried for

CLOVERDALE ITEMS.

[Pacific Sentinel.]

The wine from the Cloverdale winery has been shipped to Santa Rosa this week, and other preparations are being made to commence wine-making. The winery will be run by steam this season.

We recently saw this year's grafts of Tannat, Saint Macaire and Marsanne with from three to seven bunches of well-developed grapes on them, not only a vine here and there but the fruit was the rule and not the exception.

W. D. Sink is arranging for water works by pumping from the river. The enterprise is a good one for the people, and we should encourage it by liberal patronage. The attempt to form a joint stock association, recently, was a failure.

Quite a commotion was caused among our citizens Thursday night, between 10 and 11 o'clock, by the report that the safe in the railroad depot had been blown open by robbers. A large crowd soon assembled at the scene of the supposed robbery, but found that it was a false alarm and the safe was all right.

More damage has been done by sunburn, some vines being literally bereft of every berry and even vine grapes suffering. From all sides reports of short crops come and indeed the estimate for the vintage grows lower week by week, so it is on the cards that those who refused absurdly low offers for their vines will yet come out all right.

A stranger was in town, Tuesday, visiting the China wash-houses trying to collect a dollar from the river. Chinaman, representing that he was going to Congress and make laws in favor of Chinamen, so they could stay in this country. He told them that he had been in Northern California collecting from their countrymen and would use the money in their interest. We do not think he got many dollars from the Chinamen here for they set him down as a fraud which he undoubtedly was.

Last week, Friday, a very destructive mountain fire broke out in Devil's Den canyon, about fourteen miles east of this place, and raged fiercely for several days. The fire went up the canyon toward the Oakland Quick-silver Mines, which are situated about four miles south of the Geyser Springs Hotel, and on Saturday all the mine buildings, with the tools and machinery, were burned to the ground as, also, were the houses of Chas. Hossocks and Chas. Prichett with their contents. Nothing was saved and the loss is estimated to be about $8,000.

A counter and desk for sale cheap. Call at this office and see the same. Will be sold at a sacrifice as owner has no use for them.
